

Winter Art Classes 2017

WATERCOLOR (High School & Adults)

GEORGE SMITH, Instructor

Thursdays, February 9th – March 16th, 2017 – 6:00 – 8:00pm (6 classes)

This class is designed to take a complete novice to watercolor on to a more advance knowledge of the art. It will be geared to doing still life with an emphasis on doing outside work to that individual's interest. This could include anything from abstract to portrait work to landscapes projects. A working knowledge of drawing and composition is suggested but not required.

FEE: $60

DRAWING 101 (Ages 13-103)

BILL WHORRALL, Instructor

Saturdays, February 11th, 18th, 25th, March 4th, 2017 – 10:00 am – noon (4 classes)

Would you like to draw better? Brush up on the basics and have instruction in drawing problems you encounter? Do you like to draw but know you need to have someone look at your work and help you grow? This class will be for anyone between 13 and 103. It is for beginning and experienced students (we are all students) who want to learn the basics or improve their drawing skills. Challenging projects will be offered for all ages and abilities. All materials provided!

FEE: $50
